

SFGH Point of Care

Urine Sediment Microscopy / Renal Clinic

Unit: Adult Medical Center/Ward 92

Date: 5/31/13

Rosaly Ferrer, RN, MS
Nurse Manager
Adult Medical Center

Sam James MD
Renal Clinic Chief

1. Clinical Indications:

- All new patients have a urine chemstrip test and urine sediment microscopic examination
- Follow-up patients monitored for renal disease activity will also have a urine chemstrip test and urine sediment microscopic examination

2. Documentations:

- All results, pertinent positives and negatives, are recorded in patient's medical record/LCR by the provider performing the test
- Verification and documentation for equipment PMR are the responsibility of biomedical engineering department
- Verification and documentation of provider competency are listed on PPMP

3. Clinical Actions:

- All Urine Sediment Microscopy results are reviewed by the performing provider and attending nephrologist at the time the test results are obtained.
- Positive results:

Will be interpreted in relation to the patient's clinical presentation and discussed with the patient

- Negative Results:

Will be interpreted in relation to the patient's clinical presentation and discussed with the patient